What is Vida Nueva?

Vida Nueva is Spanish for "New Life." It consists of: A three day weekend beginning Friday evening and ending Sunday evening. Weekends are held separately for young men and young women. It is a weekend of living in Christian Community. It is a clear and obvious experience of the work of Christ in the world today. It is a tool of God, it is not an end in itself. It does embody personal witness. It does involve group dynamics. It does employ Christian instruction. It does have follow up activities.

Vida Nueva is NOT:

- A revival meeting.
- Group therapy or sensitivity training.
- A Church School.
- A Church substitute.

What happens on a VN weekend?

Vida Nueva (New Life) begins on a Friday afternoon and ends the following Sunday evening. The VN team leading the weekend is composed of former attendees of VN, Tres Dias, or similar 3-day renewal type weekends who have volunteered their time for weeks of preparation by working and praying together as a unit. Vida Nueva presents the basics of Christian life and the meaning of living the Christian ideal and its application in our daily lives. VN is centered around lay and clergy talks. Each talk is discussed by table groups. The basic atmosphere of VN is one of love, Christian fellowship, singing, laughing, and worship.

Who should attend a VN weekend?

All young men and women from the age of 15 to 20 at the beginning of the weekend are welcome to attend. There are separate weekends for young men and women. Each attendee must be sponsored by someone who has previously attended a VN, Tres Dias, Walk to Emmaus, or similar Cursillo type weekend.

The Fourth Day

One's life after VN is called the Fourth Day. Following a VN weekend a person is able to expand his/her own spiritual life and become a more active disciple of Jesus Christ in the world, in their church, and in their school and work. During this time, encouragement is important and is provided through contact with the VN Community. Reunions of smaller groups within their local church and school are encouraged so that the participants may help one another in living the Christian life.

How may I attend a Vida Nueva weekend?

If you are interested you must completely fill in the application. Be sure to obtain all the requested signatures and insurance information. Then return it to your sponsor. It is your sponsor's responsibility to return the signed application to the VN council.
